Kingston, NY — Since arriving at the Women's Studio Workshop (WSW) in June, interns Morgan Allen, Serena Hocharoen, and El Horsfall have been making independent and collaborative work. Taking advantage of their 24/7 studio access, they've clocked long hours in papermaking, etching, and silkscreen, producing a series of works to be installed in our gallery this weekend. The show, featuring fusions of prints, paper, and products, will open with a reception on November 14th from 5-6 pm. Join us as we celebrate their time in the Hudson Valley, and see what they've learned and made together over the past five months.

After the opening, stay for Slide Night to see presentations by two of our artists-in-residence: Tona Wilson and Fafnir Adamites. Presentations begin at 6:30 pm; both events are free and open to the public.

Women's Studio Workshop (WSW) is a visual arts organization in Rosendale, New York. Since 1974, WSW has brought over 5,000 artists from across the globe to work in their printmaking, hand papermaking, letterpress printing, photography, book arts and ceramics studios. Over 6,000 Ulster County youth have participated in WSW's art-in-education program. WSW's artists' book grant program has published more than 200 artists' books, collected by special collections of major libraries and museums including The Metropolitan Museum of Art, The Tate Modern, and The Library of Congress, among others.

Women's Studio Workshop programs are made possible by the New York State Council on the Arts with the support of Governor Andrew Cuomo and the New York State Legislature. Additional funding comes from the National Endowment for the Arts, Milton & Sally Avery Arts Foundation, The Cowles Charitable Trust, Edwards Foundation Arts Fund, Agnes Gund, Hershey Family Foundation, Klock Kingston Foundation, Joan Mitchell Foundation, Christopher & Dana Reeve Foundation, Ora Schneider Residency Grant, Stewart's Holiday Match, Sustainable Arts Foundation, The Andy Warhol Foundation for the Visual Arts and Windgate Charitable Foundation.
